

Fresh perspective wanted in Audit Committee

Do you have a strong passion for the public sector and a desire to make a real difference? The City of Edmonton is looking for an Audit Committee Public Member.

The Audit Committee plays a critical role by offering observations and objective advice on issues concerning risk management, internal controls, financial reporting and regulatory and governance requirements of the organization. In this pivotal role, the Public Member of the Audit Committee will contribute by bringing fresh perspectives and thinking to a role which is continually evolving in line with best practices.

The City of Edmonton's Audit Committee is comprised of five City Councillors and two members of the public, and the Mayor serves as the Chair. The successful public-member candidate will gain a unique knowledge, understanding and an appreciation of the inner workings of the City which will elevate their own professional experience and contribute to a sense of fulfillment and satisfaction by serving the City and the Edmonton community.

If you are committed to the City of Edmonton, have proven leadership skills and are comfortable presenting in public forums, this could be your opportunity.

Your professional accounting designation; knowledge of accountability practices for large, high-performing organizations; and your experience in audit, risk management and financial assessment will qualify you for this important role.

City Council values the broad range of talents, abilities, and perspectives found among the citizens of Edmonton. Applicants from diverse backgrounds are encouraged to apply, and preference is given to Edmonton residents. The deadline to apply is Tuesday, November 12, 2013.
