

City to Release Proposed 2014 Operating Budget

The City of Edmonton is releasing the proposed 2014 Operating Budget at noon on November 1, 2013, a week ahead of the November 6 formal presentation to City Council.

The advance online release will provide the new City Council, the media and Edmontonians additional time to review the documents. This is the first step in the Council deliberation process; Council gives final approval to the operating budget in mid-December.

Information on the 2014 Budget, and related materials as they become available, can be found at edmonton.ca/budget2014.

Chief Financial Officer Lorna Rosen will be available to answer questions about the process and the proposed budget.
