

Seasonal parking ban ends

Crews continue with windrow removal in school zones

Roadway Maintenance will lift the seasonal parking ban Friday, December 6, 2013, at 3 p.m.

"I want to thank the crews for working so hard around the clock, and thank those who complied with the parking ban and helped make our jobs easier," said Bob Dunford, Director of Roadway Maintenance, Transportation Services.

Roadway Maintenance returns to its normal 24/7 snow removal cycle over the weekend, plowing and sanding priority routes as required. Windrow removal will begin in school zones on Monday, December 9, 2013. Temporary No Parking signs will be placed in areas where crews are working.

The City of Edmonton greatly appreciates citizens' compliance in signed areas. This helps crews get their work done quickly and safely.
