Oil Kings take to the ice for those in need

Join Edmonton Oil Kings players and a Snow Angels nominee as they encourage Edmontonians to put in ice time by shovelling snow and ice for a local senior.

Date: Monday, January 20, 2014

Time: 10 a.m.

Location: 12812-62 Avenue NW (Residential address)

Sharon Chapman, senior program planner with the City's Community Standards Branch, and Darryl Porter, Edmonton Oil Kings vice president, will be available to discuss the successful partnership between the Snow Angels program and the Edmonton Oil Kings.

Snow Angels is an awareness and recognition program encouraging Edmontonians to voluntarily shovel snow for a senior or person with disabilities in their community. The program also asks those that receive help to acknowledge their volunteer as a City of Edmonton Snow Angel.
