Nominate an outstanding citizen for a Mayor's Award

Awards honour people and projects that improve life for people with disabilities

Have you noticed someone providing outstanding service to a person with a disability? Are you impressed by a facility that shows innovation in designing for accessibility? The Advisory Board on Services for Persons with Disabilities is calling on you to nominate these leaders for a Mayor's Award.

Each year, Mayor's Awards are given to individuals and organizations in Edmonton who demonstrate a commitment to enhancing the quality of life of persons with disabilities.

Award categories include:

- Outstanding Service – recognizes individuals, organizations or businesses that provide accessible service to persons with disabilities
- Universal Design in Architecture – given to a project team or architect whose designs or projects demonstrate creative sensitivity toward the accessibility of persons with disabilities
- Employers – honours employers, businesses or organizations that have provided opportunity and support for employment or volunteer positions for one or more persons with disabilities
- Even Nelson Self-Advocacy Award – recognizes the contributions of individuals with disabilities who have been self-advocates in the development of services and supports for people with disabilities

The deadline for nominations is Friday, March 7, 2014.

The awards ceremony will be held the evening of Wednesday, May 21, 2014 at City Hall.
