Neon Sign Museum illuminates 104 Street

Media are invited to the launch and lighting of Edmonton's Neon Sign Museum. The City of Edmonton collected 12 historic neon signs, eight of which were restored and installed on the side of the Telus building.

The Museum, the first of its kind in Canada, is possible thanks to a partnership between the City, the Alberta Sign Association, Telus, the Downtown Business Association and The Places.

Date: Friday, February 21, 2014

Time: 7 p.m.

Location: Outside of Telus Building, 104 Avenue and 104 Street
