Breathe new life into your historic home

Are you the owner of a historic home, full of character, charm and outdated electrical systems? Bring your problems and questions to This Old Edmonton House, the City of Edmonton's popular seminar about owning, maintaining and restoring a historic home.

The seminars run from March 4 to April 12, 2014 and each cost between $20 and $45.

Seminars include:

- Windows and Doors on March 10, 7 to 9 p.m.
- Mechanical and Electrical Systems on March 17, 7 to 9 p.m.
- Roofs and Exteriors on March 24, 7 to 9 p.m.
- Historic Interiors Tour on April 5, 10 a.m. to noon.
- House Doctor on April 12, 9 a.m. to noon. This seminar is a chance to walk through a private historic home from top to bottom to evaluate the house for potential problems.
- And more!

An expert in the field will lead each seminar. All but three presentations will be given at Fort Edmonton Park. Register soon as interest is high and space is limited.
