2013 Edmonton Elections campaign contribution and expenses statements released

Candidates who ran for City Council in the October 2013 election were required to file statements listing campaign contributions with the Office of the City Clerk. They were also required to report the total of their campaign expenses.

The candidate reports are now available: Filed Statements from the 2013 Election.

The City of Edmonton collects all municipal campaign contributions and expenses information in accordance with Alberta's Local Authorities Election Act. The Ministry responsible for the governing legislation is Alberta Municipal Affairs.
