Seeking inspiring ideas: Pecha Kucha wants you

Do you think outside of the box, off the page, into the stratosphere? Or, do you simply have an inspiring, great idea that you want to share with other engaged and creative people in Edmonton? If so, Pecha Kucha Night Edmonton is the perfect venue to put forward your ideas.

More than 200 presentations have been given to date on wide-ranging topics, from lighting up Edmonton's bridges to spelling bees and everything in between.

Edmonton's NextGen is accepting presentation submissions for Pecha Kucha Night 19, taking place on Thursday, June 5, 2014 in Sir Winston Churchill Square. Interested applicants should read the 10 steps to a great Pecha Kucha presentation and then submit their presentation using this form.

Deadline for submissions is Thursday, May 8, 2014.

Submissions will be reviewed by NextGen the week of May 12, 2014. Applicants will be notified the following week if they have been selected to present.

What is Pecha Kucha?

Drawing its name from the Japanese term for "the sound of chit chat", Pecha Kucha Night is a venue for young designers to meet, network, exchange ideas and discuss their work in public. The presentation format is based on a simple idea: 20 images, each shown for 20 seconds, for a total presentation length of six minutes and 40 seconds. This format keeps presentations concise, fast-paced and entertaining. Join the local conversation on Twitter and Instagram using the hashtag #yegpkn.

Pecha Kucha Night 19 is sponsored by the City of Edmonton, Graphos, Klein Dytham, Stantec and Famoso. Edmonton's NextGen is proud to partner with the Edmonton Pride Festival for Pecha Kucha Night 19.
