PSA - Whitemud Drive West road planning: Get involved

Edmontonians are invited to attend an Open House where draft long-range concept plans for Whitemud Drive between Anthony Henday Drive and 231 Street will be presented.

Date: Wednesday, April 23, 2014

Time: 4 – 8 p.m.

Location: Spirit West Church, 7003-199 Street

Communities in Edmonton's west including Lewis Estates, Rosenthal, Glastonbury and Granville have seen increased development and traffic volumes in recent years. In response, the City of Edmonton is reviewing previously completed concept plans for this corridor to ensure that the long-term plans will meet future traffic needs.

This meeting is an opportunity for area residents and stakeholders to learn more about the proposed concept plans and to provide feedback. During the open house, representatives from the City will be available to answer questions.

The study outcome will be a long-term plan that can be staged for implementation over the next 30 years.
