Winter is done and day camping has begun

Winter is over. With young Edmontonians finally able to enjoy the outdoors, what could be more fun than a day camp right in their own neighbourhood?

Starting on Tuesday, April 29, 2014, families will be able to register their children in a City of Edmonton community summer day camp. Whether your child is a sports fanatic, a budding scientist, a young Picasso, or an aspiring dancer, there is a day camp for them!

Camps are available for children ranging from 3 to 12 years old, and there are volunteer opportunities for youth ages 13 to 17 years old.

Parents can register their children online, by calling 311, or in person at any City of Edmonton recreation facility.
