Prepare for fun at Get Ready in the Park

Are you prepared in the event of an emergency? Find out how you and your family can get ready. The City of Edmonton is hosting Get Ready in the Park, a free, fun event that helps Edmontonians learn how to prepare for emergencies.

Date: Saturday, May 10, 2014
Time: 10 a.m. – 4 p.m.
Location: Hawrelak Park

Have you ever wanted to get behind the wheel of a fire truck? See the cockpit of a helicopter? Meet real life heroes who are first on scene when there's a major incident? All of this and much more awaits at the eighth annual Get Ready in the Park which provides an exciting, interactive learning experience.

Kids are encouraged to complete their Passport to Preparedness to be eligible to win Lego and Playmobil emergency themed prizes! Adults also have a chance to win Emergency and First Aid kits by completing a short survey on site. They can also pick up a copy of that new edition of the City of Edmonton's Emergency Guide which is also available by downloading a copy.

This year's event features more than 40 exhibitors from municipal, provincial, federal, corporate and nonprofit organizations along with six Edmonton food trucks, Fat Franks and Van Houtte coffee.
