Nighttime economy in the spotlight

Media are invited to attend the International Responsible Hospitality Conference in Edmonton. The conference, hosted by Responsible Hospitality Edmonton in partnership with Alberta Gaming and Liquor Commission, will examine the complexity of the late-night economy and how community, industry, regulations and policing all have an impact on safety and vibrancy.

Date: Wednesday, May 21 and Thursday, May 22, 2014

Time: 8:30 a.m. – 5 p.m.

Location: Coast Edmonton Plaza, 10155 105 Street

Media may be interested in interviewing the following speakers:

- Mayor Don Iveson (May 21, 8:50 – 9 a.m.)
- Angela Turner, program manager, Responsible Hospitality Edmonton
- Sergeant Jacob Montgomery, Public Safety Compliance Team
- Paul Davies, night time economy consultant to the Association of Town & City Management (ATCM), London, England
- Jim Peters, founder and president, Responsible Hospitality Institute
- Captain Robert Duvall, Las Vegas Metropolitan Police
- Professor Mark Bellis, director of policy, research and development for Public Health Wales
