World's first municipal waste-to-biofuels facility opens in Edmonton

Media are invited to the opening of the first industrial-scale facility to produce biofuels and chemicals from municipal solid waste.

Please join Honourable Robin Campbell, Minister of Environment and Sustainable Resource Development and Government House Leader for the Government of Alberta, Honourable Diana McQueen, Minister of Energy, City of Edmonton's Mayor Don Iveson and Enerkem's President and CEO Vincent Chomet for the announcement.

Date: Wednesday, June 4, 2014

Time: Noon

Location: Enerkem's Waste-to-Biofuels and Chemicals Facility
Edmonton Waste Management Centre
Site 460, 13111 Meridian Street NE

Instructions to media: Please note that due to construction of Anthony Henday Drive there is a road detour north of the Yellowhead Trail. Follow road detour signs and allow for extra travel time. Please drive towards the scale house at the Edmonton Waste Management Centre and then follow the signs to the facility.
