It's a bug's life this Father's Day at John Janzen Nature Centre

Come one, come all. Learn all about bugs – flies, beetles, worms, slugs, spiders, butterflies and more!

Date: Sunday, June 15, 2014

Time: 11 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Location: John Janzen Nature Centre
7000-143 Street (Whitemud Drive & Fox Drive)

Cost: Summer Admission Rates apply

Earn your Bug-ology diploma by examining live insects, learning about honey bees, and checking out worm composting. Other great activities include bug hunting with a naturalist, face painting and caricatures. With so much bug action, it's the perfect way to spend Father's Day.
