Strathcona rezoning public meeting

Rezoning would apply to former service station site

Edmontonians are invited to a public meeting to discuss a proposed rezoning of a former service station site at 10455-82 Avenue NW.

Date: Wednesday, June 18, 2014

Time: 7 p.m.

Location: Strathcona Community League Hall, 10139-87 Avenue NW

The application proposes a rezoning and amendment to the Strathcona Area Redevelopment Plan. It would allow for a six storey mixed residential and commercial development on a formerly contaminated site. The rezoning would apply only to the vacant lots at 10455-82 Avenue NW.

This public meeting provides residents an opportunity to learn more about the proposal and give feedback to the City and the applicant. Comments will be summarized in a report to City Council before Council makes a decision on the application.
