City of Edmonton

Last week to nominate Edmonton's best blooming yards

Nominations for Front Yards in Bloom are closing soon! Residents are encouraged to nominate their neighbours' great front yards in Edmonton. The Front Yards in Bloom program honours residents who are making the city more attractive and contributing to the livability and vibrancy of our communities.

Nominations are being accepted in four categories – including general, natural, edible, and public spaces until June 30. You can nominate a yard:

- Online at frontyardsinbloom.ca
- By phoning 311

In July, volunteers will visit each nominated yard to deliver a sign or decal and brochure. The top yards are then chosen to receive awards, with winners announced during the Edmonton in Bloom Awards ceremony at City Hall on August 13.

Edmonton's Front Yard in Bloom program is a partnership between the City of Edmonton, Edmonton Horticultural Society and the Canadian Union of Postal Workers with sponsorship from the Realtors Association of Edmonton.

Learn more about the program and submit your nomination at frontyardsinbloom.ca.
