City Archives launches Humberstone Mine online exhibit

Edmontonians are invited to the launch of the City of Edmonton Archives' latest online exhibit featuring the history of the Humberstone Mine.

The new exhibit allows visitors to explore the history of the Humberstone Mine, which operated in Beverly between 1900 and 1934. It employed hundreds of people, contributed thousands to the local economy, and was an important part of the social, political, and economic life of the community.

Join us at the launch to find out more and share some stories!

Date: Monday, July 7, 2014

Time: 7 – 8 p.m.

Location: Beverly History Interpretive Centre, 10906-40 Street

This launch is a joint effort between the City of Edmonton Archives and the Olde Towne Beverly Historical Society, and is part of Doors Open Edmonton. The exhibit was created as a way for the Archives to honour the Town of Beverly's 100th anniversary, being celebrated this year.

The evening will consist of a short presentation on the history of the mine, remarks from Beverly Historical Society President Dan Vriend, and the unveiling of the new exhibit.
