The Nature Centre is abuzz over the Honey Harvest Festival

John Janzen Nature Centre will be a hive of activity as it hosts the inaugural Honey Harvest Festival!

Join us for an evening filled with bees, honey and information about how you can help conservation efforts for nature's great pollinators.

Date: Friday, September 12, 2014

Event Time: 7-10 p.m.

Location: John Janzen Nature Centre
7000-143 Street (Whitemud Drive & Fox Drive)

Shared parking lot with Fort Edmonton Park

Admission: $20/person (alcohol tastings sold separately)

The Honey Harvest is a unique opportunity to learn all about bees and actively participate in conservation efforts. This special evening will include a hive demonstration, the chance to create your own take-away native bee home, and a presentation by bee expert, University of Alberta professor Jessamyn Manson.

We'll have an on-site marketplace featuring artisan products and honey samples. Enjoy a local mead and beer tasting while you listen to live music. It's an evening everyone will be buzzing about!

Tickets are on sale now. Reserve your spot by calling 311.
