City invests $15 million in Edmonton neighbourhoods

Media are invited to join Councillor Andrew Knack to learn more about the investments made in 2014 as part of the City's Great Neighbourhoods Capital Program. City representatives will provide an update on the Stony Plain Road Streetscape project and will share new renderings of the long-term vision of Stony Plain Road area. Information will also be shared about the upgrades to the Canora greenway.

Date: Friday, August 22, 2014

Time: 11 a.m.

Location: Corner of Stony Plain Road and 153 Street

The Great Neighbourhoods Capital Program was established to invest about $15 million per year to develop and deliver on community-identified priorities. This program coordinates investment in three key areas: Neighbourhood Revitalization, Neighbourhood Redevelopment & Improvements and Business Development.
