City of Edmonton

The City of Edmonton wants young leaders

Are you passionate about issues related to Edmonton's young people? Want to be part of our City's youth voice? Gain more leadership skills in civic matters? Now is your time to get involved - apply to become part of the City of Edmonton's Youth Council (CEYC).

CEYC's members and Youth Council's mission is to educate and empower youth to provide meaningful input and to take action on local issues and municipal politics in Edmonton. The City of Edmonton is looking for up to 20 youth and young adults between the ages of 13 and 23 to serve a one-year term with the CEYC.

Interested young leaders, thinkers and doers are invited to submit their applications by Friday, September 19, 2014. Please note: youth under the age of 18 must include the written consent of their parent or guardian with their applications.

For more information on the CEYC, the role of Youth Council members, or to get a copy of the application form, please visit edmonton.ca/youthcouncil
