Come celebrate the new face of Borden Park

Citizens are invited to the grand opening of the newly revitalized Borden Park on Friday, September 19, 2014.

The 100 year-old park has undergone extensive renovations including: a formal garden with interactive fountains, over 200 new trees, approximately two kilometres of new walkways, a new park pavilion, 12 art exhibits and refurbishment of the bandshell theatre. A revamped playground includes elements from the original fairground and Edmonton's first zoo.

Date: Friday, September 19, 2014

Time: 5:30 – 7:30 p.m.

Location: Borden Park (7507 Borden Park Road)

Join in fun activities for all ages including a petting zoo, bouncy castles, face painters, lawn games, food trucks, and a scavenger hunt highlighting various new features of the park. Edmonton Arts Council artists will also be on site to discuss their works.

At 7:30 p.m. Northlands will be hosting an outdoor movie screening of Back to the Future on a large screen at the adjacent Bellevue Community League. Citizens are invited to park their cars or grab a few lawn chairs for the free show.

Formal ceremonies commemorating the milestone will run from 5:30 – 6 p.m. at the amphitheatre.
