Borden Park celebrates major revitalization

Media are invited to join the Honourable Diana McQueen, Minister of Municipal Affairs, Councillor Tony Caterina and representatives from the City of Edmonton and Edmonton Arts Council as they celebrate the official opening of the newly revitalized Borden Park.

Date: Friday, September 19, 2014

Time: 5:30 – 6 p.m.

Location: Borden Park (Amphitheatre), 7507 Borden Park Road

Instructions to Media: Angled parking will be blocked off and available off Borden Park Road for quick access to the amphitheatre location.

The 100 year-old park has undergone extensive renovations including: a formal garden with interactive fountains, over 200 new trees, approximately two kilometres of new walkways, a new park pavilion, 12 art exhibits and refurbishment of the bandshell theatre. A revamped playground includes elements from the original fairground and Edmonton's first zoo.
