Pirates, take your booty to the Muttart Conservatory

Halloween parties can be scary for little ones. That's why the Muttart Conservatory offers boo-tanical fun for families. This year, it's Pirates of the Pyramids—a spirited afternoon of crafts and activities.

Date: Sunday, October 19, 2014

Time: noon – 4 p.m.

Location: Muttart Conservatory (9629-96A Street NW)

Admission: Included with regular admission

Everyone is encouraged to dress up and kids are invited to make their own pirate flags. The Purple Team face painters will be there to give visitors swashbuckling style. Captain Jolly Roger and Penelope Pumpkin will host a search for hidden treasure, Captain Skippy will perform pirate magic and there will be Halloween treats to enjoy.

Guests can visit the limited-time Orchid Buzz feature pyramid and take an orchid tour. The Orchid Buzz pyramid will only be open for one more week until Sunday, October 26.

This orchid show is presented in collaboration with the Orchid Species Preservation Foundation, a group of local orchid enthusiasts who work in partnership with the Muttart Conservatory.
