Ceremony marks 70th anniversary of liberation of Dutch friendship city

The public is invited to attend as members of the South Alberta Light Horse (SALH) perform a flag raising ceremony to commemorate the 70th anniversary of the liberation of the city of Bergen op Zoom in the Netherlands.

Date: Wednesday, October 22, 2014
Time: 8:30 a.m.
Location: Community Flagpoles, west side of City Hall plaza

Mayor Don Iveson will join Lieutenant-Colonel TG Steele, the Commanding Officer of the SALH; Angus Watt, the Honorary Lieutenant Colonel of the SALH; and members of the Edmonton Salutes committee to raise the Bergen op Zoom town flag. This flag also recognizes the Bond of Friendship between the two cities and will fly until October 28, 2014.

The Mayor will also acknowledge the Bond of Friendship in Council Chambers on Wednesday morning.

Marvin Neumann, Chair, and Councillor Dave Loken, Vice-Chair of the Edmonton Salutes Committee will travel to Bergen op Zoom to take part in the commemorative activities October 24-27, 2014.
