Building healthy families; family violence prevention month declared

Media are invited to join Councillor Andrew Knack as he proclaims November as Family Violence Prevention Month. Heather Klimchuk, Minister of Human Services, Edmonton Police Services Superintendent Mark Neufeld, and Jim Gurnett, author of Together, Creating a Better World: A Handbook for Community Work to End Gender Discrimination, will also be in attendance.

Date: Monday, November 3, 2014
Time: Noon - 1 p.m.
Location: City Room, City Hall
1 Sir Winston Churchill Square

This year's theme is Families are the Fabric of our Community. We all Deserve to be Safe. This year's goal is to raise awareness of how we all need to be actively involved in building healthy families. During Family Violence Prevention Month in Alberta, hundreds of communities and thousands of individuals are actively involved in preventing family violence through education and service provision.
