Nine-year-old chosen as Junior Fire Chief

A nine-year-old girl from St. Teresa Catholic School will be promoted to Edmonton Fire Rescue Services' Junior Fire Chief for a Day.

Date: Thursday, November 6, 2014

Time: 10:45 a.m.

Location: Fire Station 1, 10351-96 Street NW

Isabella Pritchard was selected out of thousands of other elementary school applicants for the job in a contest held by Edmonton Fire Rescue Services.

A fire rescue truck will pick Pritchard up at school. She will tour two fire stations and City Hall. Pritchard will be formally promoted at a special ceremony at Fire Station 1, presided over by Fire Chief Ken Block.

A Junior Fire Chief is chosen annually to raise awareness about fire prevention and reward students for demonstrating a commitment to fire safety.
