A Mindbending Training Exercise Firefighters to Scale Galaxyland's Rollercoaster

Eight firefighters with Edmonton's Fire Rescue Services' Technical Rescue Team will climb Galaxyland's Mndbender rollercoaster to perform a mock rescue as part of their high angle training.

Date: Monday, November 24, 2014

Time: 10 a.m.

Location: GalaxyLand main gate, level one (inside entrance 8).

The rescue will take approximately 30 minutes. Technical Rescue Coordinator Corey Selby will be available at the base of the ride for interviews. Edmonton Fire Rescue Services' Technical Rescue Team is an elite group of 90 specialized firefighters who participate in quarterly training and conduct rescue techniques for more complicated emergencies. In 2013, Edmonton Fire Rescue Services' Technical Rescue Team responded to 23 high angle rescue calls.
