City of Edmonton

Calling all Snow Angels

The City of Edmonton's Snow Angels program invites you to don your snow-shovelling gear and help those in need of assistance clearing their sidewalk or driveway of snow.

Snow and ice create hazards for everyone, especially seniors and people with disabilities who may be injured from a fall. Adopting the sidewalk or driveway of a neighbour this winter will keep everyone safe and give you the satisfaction of knowing you helped someone in need.

Do you already have a volunteer who shovels your walk? Help them get their wings by nominating them as a City of Edmonton Snow Angel. If nominated, your volunteer will receive official recognition from the Mayor, be entered to win monthly prizes and will also receive tickets to an Edmonton Oil Kings game.

This year schools are also being encouraged to get involved for a chance at a free pizza party from Boston Pizza and free prizes and giveaways courtesy of the Edmonton Oil Kings.

For more information on the Snow Angels awareness and recognition program, visit edmonton.ca/snowangels or call 311.
