Call for presenters for Pecha Kucha Night 21

Interested in sharing the sound of your chit chat? We'd love to hear it! Edmonton's NextGen is looking for presenters for Pecha Kucha Night 21 (PKN 21), scheduled for March 5, 2015 at Colours Restaurant at Northlands Park.

From the Japanese phrase for "the sound of chit chat," Pecha Kucha Nights are fun, informal gatherings where some of our city's most engaged current and future leaders present inspirational ideas that have the power to transform our city. NextGen, a group of young, community-minded individuals supporting initiatives of interest to the "Next Generation," is proud to be the first to host Pecha Kucha Nights in Western Canada.

PKN speakers present their ideas with the help of 20 images shown for 20 seconds each, for a maximum presentation time of six minutes and 40 seconds. This format keeps presentations fast-paced, concise and entertaining. Edmonton's Pecha Kucha Nights have reached audiences of engaged and creative young people on wide-ranging topics – from conquering the fear of public speaking to the importance of children's museums to being part of the solution to youth homelessness – and everything in between.

Submit your presentation idea for PKN 21 to Edmonton's NextGen and join the conversation!
