City of Edmonton

Join the Snow Angels party

Join Councillor Mike Nickel; players from the Edmonton Oil Kings; representatives from Boston Pizza and United Cycle; and the students of Mount Pleasant School as they encourage Edmontonians to shovel snow and ice for a neighbour in need and enjoy a pizza party sponsored by Boston Pizza.

Date: Wednesday, January 07, 2015

Time: 10 a.m.

Location: 10541 60A Avenue NW (north side of the street across from Mount Pleasant School)

Sharon Chapman, senior program planner with the City of Edmonton; Kevin Radomski, director, Edmonton Oil Kings; Julie Rossington, business manager, Boston Pizza; and Elisabeth Thomsen, principal, Mount Pleasant School will be available to discuss the partnership with the City of Edmonton on the Snow Angel's program.

Snow Angels is an awareness and recognition program encouraging Edmontonians to voluntarily shovel snow for a senior or person with disabilities in their community. The program also asks those that receive help to acknowledge their volunteer as a City of Edmonton Snow Angel.
