City's public engagement initiative builds momentum

The City of Edmonton asked citizens for their views on public engagement. Learn what Edmontonians had to say at the Building on Momentum event, part of the City's multi-year initiative to improve public engagement.

Date: Saturday, January 24, 2015

Time: 1 – 5 p.m.

Location: Shaw Conference Centre, 9797 Jasper Avenue

Register: Building the Momentum

Find out what Edmontonians and key stakeholders told the City in over 20 workshops and online consultation. Share insights with community activist and keynote speaker Dave Meslin and find the fun in engagement with Edmonton's Rapid Fire Theatre.

Discuss why public engagement is vital to Edmonton and what is most important to improve the activity with panelists from:

- Edmonton Federation of Community Leagues (EFCL)
- Centre for Public Involvement
- Edmonton's NextGen
- City of Edmonton Transportation Services
- Councillor Michael Walters, local leader for Everyday Political Citizen

This event is part of the three-year City Council Initiative on Public Engagement led by Councillors Ben Henderson and Michael Walters.

The event is free but space is limited; registration is required.
