Proposed new development within Riverview Area Structure Plan

Citizens are invited to an open house to discuss proposals for two neighbourhoods in the Riverview area. The two neighbourhoods are located southwest of Anthony Henday Drive, east of 215 Street (City boundary) and north of Quadrant Avenue.

Date: Wednesday, January 28, 2015

Time: 5 – 8 p.m.

Location: West Edmonton Christian Assembly, 6315-199 Street NW

The meeting will provide an opportunity to view the proposed development concepts for future land uses, anticipated residential densities and the pattern and alignment of the transportation network for both neighbourhoods. There will be opportunities to provide your comments and feedback, which will be summarized and given to City Council for their consideration before making a final decision on the proposal.
