Community input wanted on Edmonton Galleria Project

The vision of the Edmonton Galleria Project is to build and successfully operate four performing arts theatres in the downtown core that will meet the needs of fine arts students, artists and performance companies. The Edmonton Downtown Academic and Cultural Foundation, a community-driven, public, not-for-profit foundation, is leading this project with the support of partners including the University of Alberta, the City of Edmonton and private developers.

The City of Edmonton will be hosting two opportunities for the public to learn more about the project and provide input.
