Discover a tapestry of Turkish Delights at the Muttart Conservatory

It's a whirlwind tour of Turkey, Sunday March 8 at the Muttart Conservatory. The Conservatory is celebrating a new feature pyramid show, Turkish Delight, with live performances, cultural demonstrations and crafts.

Date: Sunday, March 8, 2015

Time: Noon – 4 p.m.

Location: Muttart Conservatory, 9629-96A Street NW

Admission: Included with regular admission

Tulips are the centerpiece of this display, reflecting the importance of this flower in Turkish history and art. As always, tulips at the Muttart Conservatory are one of Edmonton's first signs of spring.

The Turkish Delight feature pyramid display opens March 7 and closes April 12.
