City of Edmonton

See Edmonton through the Photographer's Eye

The City of Edmonton Archives and Prince of Wales Amouries Heritage Centre invite you to view the history of Edmonton from behind the lens of a camera.

The new exhibit, Photographer's Eye, features the photographs of Chris Bruun, who began donating photographs to the City of Edmonton Archives more than 20 years ago. Bruun's work documents life within the city, with images representing a diverse and occasionally surprising perspective.

See people, buildings, nature and a whole new perspective of what is right here in front of you as we highlight the importance of the documentary photograph.

Join us at the launch to view Edmonton's history and meet Chris Bruun!

Date: Friday, March 6, 2015

Event Time: 6 - 8 p.m.

Location: Prince of Wales Amouries Heritage Centre, 10440-108 Avenue

Admission is free. The formal program will begin at 6:30 p.m. with light refreshments to follow.

The photography exhibition will run until April 10, 2015.
