School children rally for safety

On Monday, March 9, more than 200 children from neighbouring Edmonton Catholic and Edmonton Public schools Sister Annata Brockman and Bessie Nichols will stage rallies urging drivers to slow down. Councillors Bev Esslinger and Michael Oshry will speak to the ongoing issue of speeding in school zones, and the importance of community participation in the solution. An update on automated enforcement violations in school zones will be provided.

Officials from the Office of Traffic Safety, Transportation Operations, the Edmonton Police Service, the Alberta Motor Association, the Edmonton Public School Board and the Edmonton Catholic School District will also be in attendance.
