Patios aren't just for summer anymore

It's that time of year again, when the temperatures are rising and spring is on the horizon. As you head out to the Red Bull Crashed Ice event this weekend, make a pit stop to say farewell to winter during the second annual Farewell to Winter Patio Party at various locations in Edmonton.

Date: March 13 – 15, 2015

Location: Various establishments across the city

The event will begin on the evening of Friday, March 13, and run all weekend long. Participating establishments are putting their own unique spin on welcoming patrons to their patios whether it's for a late night drink, sunshine brunch, or cozy dinner.

WinterCity Edmonton is an initiative that aims to create a city that's inviting, vibrant and exciting for residents, businesses and tourists even during the winter months. The WinterCity team works to transform the way we live, work and play by reclaiming the joy of winter and embracing the season, working together as a community for Edmonton to become a world-leading winter city.
