Northeast Eco Station opens to the public

Media are invited to attend the opening of the new Kennedale Eco Station located in northeast Edmonton. Join Councillor Tony Caterina as he encourages Edmontonians to bring their household hazardous waste and electronics to an Eco Station.

Date: Tuesday, March 31, 2015

Time: 10 a.m.

Location: 5355 127 Avenue (North of Yellowhead Highway and west of 50 St.)

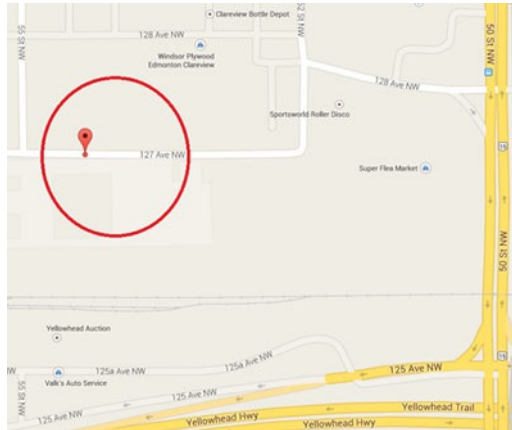

Photo opportunity: Councillor Tony Caterina will arrive at the Eco Station and drop off a box with household hazardous waste and electronics, inaugurating the facility and becoming the first resident to take waste to the new Eco Station.
