A.C.T., Confederation and O'Leary Fitness and Leisure Centres to reopen

Regular patrons and newcomers are welcome back to three City of Edmonton facilities after the completion of regular, required maintenance. A.C.T. Aquatic and Recreation Centre and Confederation Leisure Centre will reopen on Tuesday, April 7, 2015, while O'Leary Fitness and Leisure Centre will reopen on Monday, April 13, 2015.

The City of Edmonton is committed to providing Edmontonians with quality facilities; proper maintenance ensures our patrons can enjoy facilities that are safe, secure and clean.

In addition to regular maintenance, some upgrades include:

A.C.T. Aquatic and Recreation Centre

- Replaced tile floor of the main pool ramp entrance, main pool movable floor and teach pool movable floor
- Created more accessible deck space
- Replaced the floors of three out of four raised deck areas

Confederation Leisure Centre

- Rebuilt public showers in change rooms
- Installed two new diving boards
- Began renovation of the program room to accommodate 100 Voices (commencing Fall 2015)
- Installed Wi-Fi

O'Leary Fitness and Leisure Centre

- Installed new lighting in the change rooms
- Installed automated doors to the fitness centre and family change room bathroom
- Installed new equipment in the fitness centre
- Replaced swing rope

Please see full list of maintenance and upgrades posted at each facility. For more information on facility hours, admission and program schedules, call 311 or visit edmonton.ca/recreationcentres.
