Call for presenters: Pecha Kucha Night 22

Gather your shades, your sandals and your interesting ideas. Warm weather is coming, and so is Pecha Kucha Night 22 (PKN22)! Edmonton's NextGen has announced the open call for presenters for PKN 22, slated for Thursday, June 11 at Louise McKinney Park.

Derived from the Japanese phrase for "the sound of chit chat," Pecha Kucha Nights are fun, informal gatherings where some of our city's most engaged current and future leaders present inspirational ideas that have the power to transform our community.

Pecha Kucha Nights are based on a unique format where each speaker presents their thoughts with the help of 20 images, each shown for 20 seconds, with a maximum presentation time of six minutes and 40 seconds. It makes for an evening that's fast-paced and entertaining.

Edmonton's Pecha Kucha Nights have reached audiences of engaged and creative young people on wide-ranging topics – from winter driving to the importance of volunteering and giving back to your community – and everything in between.

NextGen, a group of young, community-minded individuals supporting initiatives of interest to the "Next Generation," is proud to be the first group to host Pecha Kucha Nights in Western Canada.

Kick off summer with NextGen and submit your presentation idea for PKN 22!
