Festival encourages seniors to get creative

Edmonton seniors are invited to the Creative Age Festival, an annual celebration for seniors to engage and experience art in the community. Workshops for the 2015 festival will include African Drumming, Memoir Writing, Storytelling, Pottery and much more.

Date: June 4-6, 2015
North Edmonton Seniors Association
Location: 7524 139 Avenue
(Unless otherwise noted)

Activities cost between $10-$25 per workshop and pre-registration for most workshops is required. Please register by calling the North Edmonton Seniors Association, 780-496-6969. The Creative Age Festival takes place during National Seniors Week and encourages seniors to express their identity, concerns and aspirations through art. The festival aids in well-being, quality of life and connection with the community. The Creative Age Festival is brought to our region by Creative Age Edmonton, in partnership with North Edmonton Seniors Association and GeriActors.
