Valley Line Public Meetings start on June 2

City recruiting members for Citizen Working Groups

Starting on Tuesday, June 2, the City of Edmonton is holding a series of public meetings to recruit at-large members for the Valley Line LRT Citizen Working Groups.

Five working groups are being set up along the alignment of the Valley Line between downtown and Mill Woods as part of efforts to continue engaging affected neighbourhoods during the procurement and detailed design and construction stages of the project. Community leagues and other major organizations have been invited to assign representatives to the working groups. The City is also seeking two members from the public at large for each working group. The at-large members will be peer-selected at the following public meetings, which all interested citizens are invited to attend:

Valley Line LRT Zone	Date	Meeting Location
River Valley	Tuesday, June 2 from 7-9 p.m.	Old Timer's Cabin, 9430 Soona Road
85/83 Street Corridor	Wednesday, June 3 from 7-9 p.m.	Bonnie Doon Community League Hall, 9240 – 93 Street
Whitemud	Monday, June 8 from 7-9 p.m.	Argyll Community League Hall, 6750 – 88 Street
Downtown	Thursday, June 11 from 7-9 p.m.	Boyle Street Community League Hall, 9538 – 103A Avenue
Mill Woods	Thursday, June 18 from 7-9 p.m.	North Millbourne Community League Hall, 980 Millbourne Road East
