City of Edmonton

Kick off summer with NextGen Month

Media are invited to join Councillor Andrew Knack for the official kick-off of NextGen Month in Edmonton. Inspiring and entertaining events are planned all month long.

Date: Monday, June 8, 2015

Time: 6-8 p.m.

Location: Iconoclast Koffiehuis, 11807 105 Avenue

DJ Thomas Culture will be spinning tunes all evening. Under the High Wheel and Iconoclast will be providing food and drinks. There will also be beer courtesy of Ribstone Creek and wine sponsored by Sherbrooke Liquor. City of Edmonton Poet Laureate, Mary Pinkoski, will share a poem and a Flashworks photo booth will also be available to make lasting memories.

NextGen Month celebrates a new wave of volunteerism and engagement that ensures Edmonton remains a place in which young people choose to live, learn, work and play. All Edmontonians are invited to connect with Edmonton's NextGen community, get involved, share ideas and help shape our city. A full list of events is available at edmontonnextgen.ca/events/nextgen-month/.
