City Hall School grads showcase a successful year of citizenship

CityHall School is hosting a Citizenship Fair to celebrate the end of the school year. Displays by each of the 25 school classes who participated in the 2014/2015 CityHall School program will showcase what the students have done throughout the year to demonstrate social responsibility. Speakers from a number of these classes will share their experiences at CityHall School.

Councillor Sohi will bring greetings on behalf of the Mayor and a number of his City Council colleagues will be on hand to congratulate the students on their successful time at City Hall. They will be joined by Edmonton Public School Board Trustee, Nathan Ip.

Date: Friday, June 12, 2015

Time: 1 – 4 p.m. (A short program will take place at 1:30 p.m.)

Location: City Room, City Hall

In operation for the past nine years, City Hall School connects students to their city and their curriculum. It offers a week-long, hands-on learning experience where students gain an understanding of municipal government beyond the four walls of their classroom. Citizenship, the environment and social responsibility are topics which are an integral part of City Hall School. Students learn that this landmark building is not just the home of civic leadership but also a gathering place for the community.
