Mud, sweat and love

Local gardener and Front Yards in Bloom winner expresses family diversity through gardening

Media are invited to attend the Front Yards in Bloom nominations finale event. A two-time winner of the Top Six Yards in Edmonton, Lawrence Hohl will provide a tour of his garden, a 20-year labour of love. Themed 'East and West', the garden is representative of the two cultures within his family.

Date: Thursday, June 25, 2015
Time: 10 – 11 a.m.
Location: Lawrence and Joan Hohl, 15128-94A Street

Councillor Mike Nickel will announce the end of nominations, which are being accepted until June 30, 2015. Last year, more than 3,400 Edmonton yards were nominated.

Edmonton's Front Yards in Bloom program is a partnership between the City of Edmonton, Edmonton Horticultural Society and the Canadian Union of Postal Workers, with sponsorship from the Realtors Association of Edmonton.

Photo opportunity: Eastern-themed front yard with a handmade bamboo water wheel and deer-scare water feature. Western-themed backyard with wagon wheels, spruce trees and rail ties.
