City launches pet licensing education and enforcement campaign

Media are invited to attend a pawwwws-itively fun and informative on-the-spot pet licensing event and speak with representatives from the City of Edmonton about the importance of pet licensing.

Date: Saturday, June 27, 2015
Time: 1-2 p.m.
Location: Clareview Superstore, 4950 137 Avenue

Throughout June and July, the City is focused on educating pet owners about the importance of pet licensing. Beginning in late July, Animal Control Peace Officers will undertake a zero-tolerance approach. They will issue a fine of $250 per pet to the owner of any unlicensed pet. All pets over the age of six months must be licensed.
