Edmonton's Sand Recycling Facility cleans up nicely

Every winter the City of Edmonton lays down thousands of tonnes of sand on roads in order to provide better traction and safer driving for motorists, and every spring the City launches its spring street cleaning campaign and cleans the sand up again. But what happens to it after that?

Blair Buchholtz, General Supervisor, Aggregate Recycling Operations, Transportation Services, will be available to discuss leading-edge sand recycling services run by Sand Recycling Ltd. and Edmonton's Waste Management Centre of Excellence, and will lead a tour of the facility for members of the media.

Date: Wednesday, July 22, 2015

Time: 10 a.m.

Location: 25104 50 Street NW (map)

Please note that this location is approximately a 30 minute drive from Edmonton City Hall. Parking will be available on site.

Photo Opportunity: Processing of sand (various stages)
