Take ETS to the 2015 Servus Heritage Festival

Edmonton's summer festival season continues this weekend with the 40th annual Servus Heritage Festival, August 1 – 3, 2015 in William Hawrelak Park. This three-day showcase of our nation's vibrant multicultural heritage features 62 pavilions representing more than 85 cultures from around the globe. Event-goers can sample a wide range of culinary delicacies, enjoy fabulous performances, shop for crafts, artwork and clothing, and meet people eager to share their heritage.

Park Closures

Public parking is not available at William Hawrelak Park and Emily Murphy Park, except for those with passes. Festival-goers are encouraged to use ETS Park & Ride shuttle service, available from 10 locations, plus neighbourhood pick-up services.

Parking in adjacent neighbourhoods

Parking restrictions in neighbourhoods adjacent to William Hawrelak Park will be strictly enforced by bylaw officers to ensure the safe passage of emergency service vehicles. Illegally parked vehicles will be tagged and towed.
