Muttart displays celebrated Zimbabwean sculpture

The Muttart Conservatory is proud to welcome ZimSculpt, a world-renowned exhibition of modern Zimbabwean stone sculpture. From August 22 to October 25, visitors can view unique artwork and enjoy special events with a Zimbabwean theme. There will be several special events during the exhibition. Local musician Anna Beaumont and her choir will be in the Conservatory's Centre Court for the Summer Roots concert on August 27.

Summer Roots

Date: Thursday, August 27, 2015
Time: 6–8 p.m.
Location: Muttart Conservatory, 9629 96A Street NW

The ZimSculpt feature pyramid reflects the stirring contrasts of southern Africa's sun-drenched mountain plateaus and hazy river valleys. Guests will be able to meet acclaimed Zimbabwean sculptors in residence and shop the ZimSculpt Marketplace. On August 30, visitors are invited to join in the family-friendly ZimSculpt Exhibition event, where local Zimbabwean musicians Mbira Renaissance will share ancient classical music.

ZimSculpt Exhibition

Date: Sunday, August 30, 2015
Time: Noon–4 p.m.
Location: Muttart Conservatory, 9629 96A Street NW

Summer Roots and the ZimSculpt Exhibition are included with regular admission. More events are planned for this fall. All ZimSculpt art pieces are available for purchase and displays will change throughout the exhibition.
